Associated Press

"There is no better writer of instantly memorable singalong choruses in this genre of music!"

The Boston Globe

"One of the most admired and imitated writers on the contemporary folk circuit... [He writes] pensive, probing narratives made especially memorable by their ability to translate the common details of common lives into songs of uncommon eloquence and beauty."

The Austin American-Statesman
