Meeting Room of the Salem Historical Society – 208 South Broadway in Salem

The entrance to the meeting room is through a back door of the Historical Society Museum, so it is best to turn into East Alley from Pershing with church and public parking lots available.

From State Route 14 West (State Street in downtown Salem), turn south onto Broadway for one block. Turn east onto Pershing for half a block and turn into East Alley.

From State Route 14 East (State Street), head south onto South Lincoln for one block.

Turn west onto Pershing for two and a half blocks and turn into East Alley.

"To call Bryan Bowers' performance simply a 'concert' would be inadequate if not inaccurate ... (it) could better be described as an experience!"

-Deseret News

"Bowers is widely regarded as the leading virtuoso on the autoharp... Bowers also has distinct gifts as a singer and songwriter."

-People Magazine

"...This man makes more music from an Autoharp than you can imagine from a 12-string guitar and a harpsichord combined. He has more stage presence and charisma than any stage performer in recent memory."

-The Washington Times
